INTRODUCTION

Since its beginning in 1959, the Montana Law Enforcement Academy has been the major source of professional training for the peace officers of the state. In addition to Police and Sheriff's officers, members of the Montana Highway Patrol; Fish and Game Wardens; Brand Inspectors; Montana State Prison officers; Department of Revenue Investigators; Fire Marshal's; Gross Vehicle Weight personnel; U.S. Park Service; Forest Service; and Air Force personnel; and officers from Canada and surrounding states are trained at the Academy.

The goal of the Law Enforcement Academy Bureau is to provide Montana's peace officers with professional training on subjects vital to the law enforcement function. In order to achieve this objective, the Academy provides an annual program of schools specifically designed to meet the needs of law enforcement. Table I indicates the Fiscal Year 1977 program.

MAJOR ACCOMPLISHMENTS

As the following table indicates, Fiscal Year 1977, was a year of increased participation in the Law Enforcement Academy Bureau program. A record number of officers graduated from the various LEAB schools, and a record number of schools were conducted. The three year comparison is:

	FY75	FY76	FY77
Schools Conducted	33	49	70
Weeks of Instruction	60	81.3	79
Officers Attending	707	1,104	1,423
Officers Graduating	707	1,083	1,397

There was a major increase in Regional Training participation, and a slight decrease in Academy schools attendance between FY76 and FY77. The statistics are:

	FY76	FY77	(% + or -)
Officers Attending
Regional Training	551	909	(+64.9%)
Academy	553	514	(-7.0%)
TOTAL	1,104	1,423	(+28.9%)
Officer Graduating
Regional Training	542	891	(+64.4%)
Academy	541	506	(-6.5%)
TOTAL	1,083	1,397	(+28.9%)

During the period covered by this report, five Basic schools were conducted. As a result of the continual evaluation process, it was possible to revise the Basic school curriculum to 266 hours. This was accomplished by consolidating several courses, and eliminating duplication in others. The 23rd Session was the first of the revised Basics to be conducted.

In an effort to maintain professional expertise, several staff members participated in training programs offered by other agencies. This training included the Crime Prevention Institute, Hostage Negotiations, and Managing Criminal Investigations. In addition, one staff member was accepted to the FBI National Academy.

Besides the training offered by the Academy, the LEAB provided an instructor for Yellowstone National Parks in-service training for law enforcement Rangers.

Problems:

The major problem facing the LEAB during FY77 was the efforts by the Board of Regents to move the Academy to Western Montana College. A committee from the Academy Advisory council and the P.O.S.T. council investigated WMC, as well as Northern and Eastern Montana Colleges, and determined that the Academy should remain at MSU. Numerous meetings were held in regards to this problem. The Montana Sheriff's and Peace Officer's Association went on record opposing any move, and this position was the concensus of the majority of law enforcement officers.
